

Notes:

All Specialized pages include spots for all major varieties.

They do not include spots for most plate flaws, overprint flaws, etc.

On pages with stamp photos included, there may be some stamp boxes that are without photos due to my inability to find suitable images of those stamps.

At the end of each set is a blank page for each page style used in the set. If you would like additional pages that include custom boxes, text, etc., in a style that exactly matches the existing pages, or if you would like further customizations (odd-size stamp, additional boxes, etc.) to the existing pages, please send me a note through the 'Contact Admin' form that's in the footer of every page on my website.

Albania

Albanien

In September 1943, German forces entered Albania to relieve Mussolini's Italian forces, which had recently surrendered after being badly beaten by Albanian partisans. Germany quickly occupied the capital, Tirana, and drove the partisans into the hills and to the southern regions. Germany then organized a new Albanian government to rule the new, "neutral" Albanian Kingdom.

The fighting would continue, however, as the partisans struggled to regain power. By late 1944, Germany was in retreat on all fronts, and the partisan forces were able to press this advantage. On 29 November 1944, the Albanian partisans finally liberated the entire country from German rule.
